

Seattle Maritime Festival 2009 Results

Maritime Festival Luncheon

Public Official of the Year:

Dennis McClarren, Puget Sound Air
Quality Agency

Puget Sound Maritime Achievement Award:
Marine Environmental Business of the Year
Honorable Mention

Jeremy Mattox
Foss Maritime Company
Holland America Line

Seattle Waterfront Neighborhood Chowder Cook Off

2009 Chowder Cook Off Results – Celebrity Judging

First Place: Anthony's at Pier 66
Second Place: Elliott's Oyster House
Third Place: Six-Seven at the Edgewater

2009 Chowder Cook Off Results – Celebrity Judging Special Awards

Most Traditional: Elliott's Oyster House
Clammiest: Six-Seven at the Edgewater
Cutting Edge: Bell Harbor Conference Center

People's Choice Award:

First Place: Six-Seven at the Edgewater
Second Place: Anthony's at Pier 66
Third Place: Bell Harbor Conference Center

National Fisherman Magazine Stories of the Sea

First Place: Geno Leach
Second Place: Jon Campbell
Third Place: Dano Quinn

Pacific Maritime Magazine Quick and Dirty Boat Building sponsored by Sherwin Williams, TOTE and Jensen Maritime Consultants

"Dirtiest Boat" trophy, best exemplifying the spirit of the competition:
Highline High School

Marty Johnson Memorial Fastest Boat Trophy, winner of the races:
Elliott Bay Design Group and The Glisten Associates

Survival Suit Races

First Place: Compass Courses
Second Place: Glendyne
Third Place: Seattle Propeller Club Board

U.S. Oil Tugboat Race Championship

Class C:

Parthia	9.18
Sterling	9.21
Teal	9.25
Diamond Z	9.39
Reliable	9.4
Sea Prince	9.48
Lil Toot	10.24
Bull Pup	14.04

Class B:

Island Star	7.16
Shelley Foss	7.46
Glendyne	7.47
Maris Pearl	8.26
Prudhoe Bay	9.45

Class A:

Hunter	6.18
Island Warrior	6.36
Wedell Foss	8.04
Henry Foss	8.52
F/B Leschi	6.49

People's Choice Award: Glendyne

Tugboat Annie Award: Teal

Chairman's Award: Seattle Fire Department

Sprit of the Seattle Maritime Festival Award: Sally del Fierro